

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION

THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH / B

27 DECEMBER 2020

SEE THIS CHILD! Many parents have looked at their newborn child and wondered: what will this child turn out to be? Parenting is always a journey in faith in which there will be occasions of joy, and also times of pain, as Abraham and Sarah, and Mary and Joseph, discovered. On this feast of the Holy Family, let us pray for all families.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Gen 15: 1-6; 21: 1-3

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Your own son shall be your heir.

The word of the Lord was spoken to Abram in a vision, 'Have no fear, Abram, I am your shield; your reward will be very great'.

'My Lord,' Abram replied 'what do you intend to give me? I go childless . . .' Then Abram said, 'See, you have given me no descendants; some man of my household will be my heir'. And then this word of the Lord was spoken to him, 'He shall not be your heir; your heir shall be of your own flesh and blood'. Then taking him outside he said, 'Look up to heaven and count the stars if you can. Such will be your descendants' he told him. Abram put his faith in the Lord, who counted this as making him justified.

The Lord dealt kindly with Sarah as he had said, and did what he had promised her. So Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the time God had promised. Abraham named the son born to him Isaac, the son to whom Sarah had given birth.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESP PSALM

Ps 104: 1-6, 8-9. R. vv. 7, 8

R. The Lord remembers his covenant for ever.

1. Give thanks to the Lord, tell his name, / make known his deeds among the peoples. / O sing to him, sing his praise; / tell all his wonderful works! R.

2. Be proud of his holy name, / let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice. / Consider the Lord and his strength; / constantly seek his face. R.

3. Remember the wonders he has done, / his miracles, the judgements he spoke. / O children of Abraham, his servant, / O sons of the Jacob he chose. R.

4. He remembers his covenant for ever, / his promise for a thousand generations, / the covenant he made with Abraham, / the oath he swore to Isaac. R.

SECOND READING

Heb 11: 8, 11-12, 17-19

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

The faith of Abraham, Sarah, and Isaac.

It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going.

It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise would be faithful to it. Because of this, there came from one man, and one who was already as good as dead himself, more descendants than could be counted, as many as the stars of heaven or the grains of sand on the seashore.

It was by faith that Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac. He offered to sacrifice his only son even though the promises had been made to him and he had been told: It is through Isaac that your name will be carried on. He was confident that God had the power even to raise the dead; and so, figuratively speaking, he was given back Isaac from the dead.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Heb 1: 1-2

Alleluia, alleluia! In the past God spoke to our fathers through the prophets; now he speaks to us through his Son. Alleluia!

During January the Parish Office will be open on Wednesdays and Thursdays only.

Dear Parishioners,

As you will have heard, the Archbishop has now appointed a permanent Parish Priest for St Martha's, Fr John Hayes, who will begin his ministry here at the end of January. As I have explained previously, this appointment arises out of many changes across the Archdiocese over the next two months. Fr John Hayes is one of the most experienced pastors in the Archdiocese, most recently at Pagewood and Maroubra for many years. The Archbishop's policy is that parish priests normally move after 12 years in order to both share their gifts with other parishes, and to allow for renewal within parishes. He is very grateful to Fr John for his willingness to take up this new ministry. This change will give Fr Jack Cichy the chance for overdue sabbatical leave. We are very grateful to Fr Jack for his conscientious ministry at St Martha's over the past few years. As a former parishioner myself, I know that St Martha's parish has a wonderful tradition and great potential; however, it has in recent times been marred by internal tensions that have affected the unity of the parish, and undermined good will towards some of the parish staff. A very small minority of people have made unfounded, and often defamatory, criticisms of some staff. Such conduct will not be tolerated in any parish in the Archdiocese. I urge those who have been responsible for these issues to take a step back and to begin to help restore harmony and Christian charity within the community. This change comes at an important time in the life of our Archdiocese. I trust that all parishioners will welcome Fr Hayes, and work with him to continue the renewal of St Martha's parish in keeping with the Archbishop's new Mission Plan, Go Make Disciples. Once again, on behalf of the Archbishop, I thank Fr Jack very sincerely for his ministry at St Martha's, and I wish him well as he now enjoys time for renewal in preparation for his next appointment.

with prayers and best wishes for the New Year,

Fr Gerald Gleeson, Vicar General.

THANK YOU to everyone who made the Christmas Masses so prayerful and full of joy! We appreciate all those who participated across the ministries – Acolytes, Altar Servers, Choir members, Communion ministers, Readers & Wardens. Thank you for contributing so generously towards the St Vincent de Paul Christmas Appeal & Giving Tree!

New Year's Day Mass will be celebrated at 9.10am on Friday 1st January.

GOSPEL

Lk 2: 22, 39-40

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

The child grew to maturity, and he was filled with wisdom.

When the day came for them to be purified as laid down by the Law of Moses, the parents of Jesus took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord.

When they had done everything the Law of the Lord required, they went back to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. Meanwhile the child grew to maturity, and he was filled with wisdom; and God's favour was with him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Longer form Lk 2: 22-40

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

GOD AT WORK IN THE FAMILY

In today's readings, there is a tension between dreams and reality, between hope and fear, that helps us situate ourselves as we reflect on the Holy Family and our own experience of family life. The letter to the Hebrews speaks rightly of Abraham and Sarah as being models of faithfulness, however, this should not blind us to the very real struggles they experienced.

At times both Abraham and Sarah had lost heart and become fearful that God's promises were only a false hope after all. Abraham had decided to make one of his young relatives his heir. Sarah hoped that her slave Hagar would give them the son they longed for. In the end, God would realise the promises made to them despite their attempts to take matters into their own hands!

As Mary and Joseph bring Jesus to the Temple they bring all their hopes and fears for him as they wonder how his life will unfold. Simeon and Anna recognise that God is powerfully at work in this child but Simeon also warns how Jesus' life will be marked by both success, as well as rejection. What Simeon and Anna have the eyes to see is that God's saving plan will be at work in all that will befall him.

While models of family life are placed before us today it is important not to judge ourselves too harshly. Abraham and Sarah had their difficulties, and Mary and Joseph did not always understand how God was at work in their family either!
