SAFE GUARDING

A reminder to parents that the Notice-Board located at the side entrance contains various resources for children regarding Safeguarding.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SYDNEY.

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with crimes are the police. If you, or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org

You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

Commitment Statement

The Archdiocese of Sydney is wholly committed to ensuring the safety, well-being and dignity of all Children and Adults at Risk, and it acknowledges its important legal, moral and spiritual responsibility to create a safe and nurturing environment for Children and Adults.

WORD OF GOD & CATECHIST SUNDAY

This Sunday, the 1st of February 2026 we celebrate Catechist Sunday where we thank past & current Catechists in our parish. The ministry of the Word is a fundamental element of living our faith through all its stages, because it involves the proclamation of Jesus Christ, the eternal Word of God. The work of a Catechist is a distinct and special ministry in the Church. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church makes clear, "Catechesis is intimately bound up with the whole of the life of the Church - her inner growth and correspondence with God's plan depend essentially on catechesis". This ministry of teaching in the name of the Church has a profound dignity, which is why catechists are formally commissioned by the Church. It is only fitting that we set aside a day to highlight this ministry and invite the entire church community to think about our responsibility to share our faith with others. We especially thank Lorraine Kazzi, Catechist Coordinator for her many years of service to St Martha's.

O Lord, you who have called and equipped the catechists in our community, we pray for them today. Watch over them, provide for them, guide them, sustain them. May you be their sun and shield, so that they might do the work that you have entrusted to them. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Background on the Gospel Reading (Loyola Press): Today's reading is the beginning of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which is found in Matthew's Gospel. The form of the Beatitudes found here is not unique to Jesus. Beatitudes are found in the Old Testament, in the psalms, and in wisdom literature, for example. They are a way to teach about who will find favor with God. We quickly note in this reading that the people whom Jesus calls "blessed" and "happy" are not people we think of as blessed or happy . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. This Gospel is one of reversals. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness. "Blessed" is sometimes translated as happy, fortunate, or favored. In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, those who mourn, those who are persecuted. This news might have been welcome—and surprising—to the crowds who heard Jesus that day. The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God. By referring to the good things that the faithful will experience, Matthew reminds us that those who act in the manner described in the Beatitudes will find their reward with God.

Family Connection: Today's Gospel offers a contrast to many of the messages we hear in our society today. If we were to accept uncritically the "get ahead" messages of our culture, we would think that happiness means having money, being successful, having many possessions, and so on. When we think this way, we are not unlike the people who heard Jesus teach on the day that he taught the Beatitudes. The crowd that day also associated happiness with material possessions and status. Talk as a family about what it means to be happy or to be blessed. Make a list of traits that you would associate with a happy person. Then read together today's Gospel, Matthew 5:1-12a. Reflect on Jesus' description of happiness. Think about what each of the Beatitudes might have in common and write a family summary of the Beatitudes. Post the summary in a special place as a reminder of what your family will consider "true happiness." Conclude by praying together prayers of petition based on the Beatitudes, e.g., "We pray that we will be peacemakers who seek to get along with other people even when this is difficult. We pray to the Lord." All respond: "Lord, hear our prayer."

i4give Sunday
1st February 2026

i4give Sunday serves to engage all Christian Churches in a shared embrace of the Christ-centred call to forgiveness. i4give Sunday presents the opportunity to engage in conversation around forgiveness and its power to heal and restore broken relationships, starting within and among churches and going out from there into the wider community. In an age that harbours resentment and vengeance, we are impelled to call society to return to the Face of forgiveness, Jesus Christ. By turning back and gazing at His merciful Face, we hold onto a firm hope for a transformative culture that practices the timeless truth of forgiveness. Therefore, let us return our gaze to the crucified Christ, who asks the Father to forgive those who were committing a grave injustice against Him. From the Cross, we are invited to take the difficult step of also praying for those who wrong us, who have injured us. We are repeatedly invited to live in our prayers this same attitude of mercy and love with which God treats us. On this national day, people are encouraged to "find someone you can forgive, or ask for forgiveness."

"Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you"
Ephesians 4:32

Reflection for the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A (Young Catholics)

Blessings for the Lowly Ones

The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A shows us how God sees things differently than we do. In each reading, we hear about people the world may overlook—those who are weak, poor, or humble. But God lifts them up. He sees their faith and their trust. The Gospel reading gives us the Beatitudes. Jesus tells us who is truly blessed. It's not the rich or powerful. It's those who are gentle, those who show mercy, and those who suffer for doing what is right. These words are simple, but they show us how to live as followers of Christ. The other readings also remind us to stay humble. God saves a small group of people in Zephaniah. Paul tells the Corinthians that God chooses the weak on purpose. The psalm praises God for helping the poor and the needy. These are all reminders that God is close to the lowly. The message of the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A is clear. If we want to follow Jesus, we must be small in the eyes of the world. That is where God does great things.

God's Blessings Are for Everyone

The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds us that God's blessings are not just for the powerful or successful. In the Beatitudes, Jesus shows that the promise made to Abraham is fulfilled in Him. God's kingdom is different from the world. He blesses those who are poor in spirit, meek, and merciful. This is not what people usually expect. The world values power, wealth, and status. But Jesus teaches that true happiness comes from humility and trust in God. Those who suffer, seek peace, and do what is right will receive God's blessings. The Beatitudes call us to live in a new way. They show that God's kingdom is for all who follow Him with a sincere heart. The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A challenges us to let go of selfish ambition and embrace the way of Christ. God invites us to live with faith and humility. By following the Beatitudes, we find true joy in His kingdom.

Humility and Trust in God

The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A highlights the importance of humility. In the first reading, Zephaniah calls people to be humble and do what is right. He reminds them that God watches over those who trust Him. Living humbly means letting go of pride and relying on God. Many people try to prove themselves through success and recognition. But true strength comes from trusting in God, not in our own power. Zephaniah's message is a call to live simply and faithfully. Those who seek justice and kindness will find refuge in the Lord. The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A teaches that God's ways are not about gaining power but about serving others. When we live with humility, we open ourselves to God's grace. He lifts up those who rely on Him, and He blesses those who walk in His ways.

God Chooses the Lowly

The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds us that God does not look at people the way the world does. Paul tells the Corinthians that God often chooses the weak and lowly to do His work. He does not pick people based on their status or achievements. This is a powerful message. Many people think they need to be strong, rich, or important to make a difference. But Paul shows that God works through those who seem unimportant. He lifts up the humble and makes them part of His plan. Jesus Himself lived this way. He was not born into power or wealth, yet He brought salvation to the world. The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A calls us to follow His example. God does not ask for perfection or greatness. He asks for faith and humility. When we trust in Him, He can use us in ways we never expected. The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A challenges us to see success and happiness differently. God does not look at status or achievements but at the heart. Those who trust in Him, act with kindness, and seek righteousness will receive His blessings. As we reflect on these readings, may we ask for the grace to live humbly, serve others, and follow Jesus' path to true joy.

Prayer

Lord, help us to follow the path You have set before us. Teach us to trust in You, seek justice, and live humbly. Give us the strength to show mercy and work for peace. May we always remember that true happiness comes from walking in Your ways. Amen.
